Random quote from George W. Bush

I'm delighted that Barbara Bush is with me today, and I--She got a good, clean bill of health yesterday from Walter Reed Hospital, I might add, and then--But I'm taking another look at our doctor. He told her it's okay to kiss the dog--I mean--no--it's okay to kiss your husband, but don't kiss the dog. So I don't know exactly what that means.

- during a speech, 'Project Education Reform: Time for results,' delivered at a Union, New Jersey, high school.

Bush, who once said his wife 'epitomizes a family value,' usually tries to work her into his speeches. 4/13/89
